David Stang Joins The Chicago Corporation as Senior Advisor

Chicago, IL (December 14, 2016) – The Chicago Corporation, an independent Chicago-based investment banking firm, announced today that David Stang has joined the firm as a Senior Advisor.

Mr. Stang is the founder of Stang Capital Advisory LLC, a corporate finance advisory firm focused on raising new and incremental capital for middle market companies. His clients are typically entrepreneur-owned or private equity backed in business services and recurring revenue industries. The Chicago Corporation's deep resources will allow Mr. Stang to provide capital raising capabilities throughout the capital structure as well as merger and acquisition advice to his clients.

With over 25 years of financial industry experience, Mr. Stang has developed a deep understanding of the security alarm industry, as well as companies with recurring revenue. He also has extensive experience in debt capital markets and knows the key metrics and underwriting standards utilized to maximize cost-effective financing. Previously, he held roles at Bank of America Merrill Lynch, LaSalle Bank's leveraged finance group as well as in private equity and public accounting as a CPA.

Mr. Stang holds a degree in Accountancy from the University of Notre Dame, and a Master of Business Administration from the Kellogg Graduate School of Management at Northwestern University. He holds the Series 7, 79 (Investment Banking) and 63 (State) securities licenses.
